

1865

---

During the Civil War, more troops succumbed to measles, Camp fever, typhoid, malaria, infectious dysentery, and small pox than the personnel.

Many Catholic nuns served as nurses.

---

Monument erected 1918 across St. from St. Matthews Cathedral, Wash. D.C.